TESTIMONIALS

TESTIMONIALS

"Every chance I get, I advocate to bring ConcernCenter into educational environments. Resources to assist in navigating difficulties, while reducing frustration, has great potential to improve overall completion rates, especially when students are reluctant to reach out. ConcernCenter is a game changer!"

- Deb P., Genesee Community College

"Fitchburg State University just launched our ConcernCenter platform this week, and the response has been tremendous. The value of this tool, and the barriers it eliminates for students accessing support has been instantly recognized, and we are just getting started. This platform is a game changer, with unmatched customer service."

- Joe F., Assistant Director for Case Management

"ConcernCenter focuses on truly helping people! It is a woman owned business with a hand selected team of compassionate people who want to help get resources to their users as quickly, efficiently, and effectively! This is a business run by the desire to truly make a difference to as many people as possible!"

- Renee K.

TESTIMONIALS

"Our partnership has been instrumental in helping students, staff, and faculty connect directly to campus and community resources. We love the ease and accessibility ConcernCenter provides to our campus community."

- Lynne C., Drake University

"ConcernCenter provides an outstanding product that directly benefits students, faculty and staff! Their team is always quick to respond and very helpful!"

- Karene, Higher Ed. Administrator

"ConcernCenter has been an amazing partner and helped us provide critical information to our students in one place."

- Christy H., Dean of Students at SUNY Oswego

TESTIMONIALS

"Wonderful and easy to use tool!"

- Elliot Z., Former Higher Ed. Professional

"Great company trying to change the world!"

- Janet T., Parent of College Student

"ConcernCenter is such a unique and vital platform to help address the fact that folks often don't know where to go for help when they need it most!"

- Zoe B., University of Rochester

TESTIMONIALS

"ConcernCenter is an amazing platform that is helping 1000s of students, parents, and others all around the US getting support when they need it the most. It is easy to use, helpful and private. The ConcernCenter staff is always willing to go above and beyond to help out their clients. People supporting people."

- Claire

"ConcernCenter has been an amazing resource for our university. Students and employees are able to quickly find resources through a service that fits their schedule and makes things simple. My favorite feature is the ability to translate into 100+ languages so that our students and families can access in the language they're most comfortable with. Further, the support team at ConcernCenter is so responsive and friendly! I can't recommend this enough!"

- Kaitlin, University of Rochester

"The CC platform is the absolute best way to aggregate information for anyone, students, employees, citizens, anyone, to find the resources they need and want for their specific concern. It collects all the information so people don't have to 'know' what site or where to go. They just know to go to ConcernCenter to find their concern and can be confident they will be given the resources that are pertinent to them."

- Gregory I.

TESTIMONIALS

"My classmates and I loved learning about ConcernCenter! This website is so helpful for anything you may be having an issue with. It's great for schools too! It's such an amazing site and we can't wait to use it. The people who made this website are so helpful and nice and there whenever you need them. We will totally recommend this to anyone who asks!"

- Middle School Student

"ConcernCenter enhances what the counseling center and campus resources can do because it eliminates barriers that prevent students from arriving at a resource."

- Karen Logsdon, SUNY Brockport

"The website is amazing. It's a great information hub for people who might not be ready to personally engage and, instead, want to find support on their own."

- Jessica T., Binghamton University

TESTIMONIALS

"Our students use of ConcernCenter increased by 57% this Spring semester compared to last Spring."

- Geri M., University of Louisville

"We are loving ConcernCenter at Slippery Rock!"

- Karla F., Dean of Student Support at Slippery Rock University

"I was recently told about your ConcernCenter site in the state of Utah and its quite possibly the greatest thing I've ever seen. We have been trying to build a list of organizations in the state and what services they offer- then I was told about your site. Amazing!"

- Trevor J., President and Founder of Bikers Against Domestic Violence

TESTIMONIALS

"I have worked at four different college institutions and as a campus administrator, there is absolutely nothing like ConcernCenter. This is exactly what students need- to access help in a way that makes sense to them. ConcernCenter is onto something that may very well change how colleges/universities address finding support for mental health and other concerns."

- Darnell, Former Dean of Students

"ConcernCenter has been a great promotional resource for our office! We've been able to consolidate information about resources, and students are really impressed by the option to search for concerns they have. The depth of accessibility options is a great touch to make this resource accessibly to all without barriers."

- Earl C. M.ED., Slippery Rock University

"Erin and her team have been fantastic to work with. They kept us motivated through the onboarding process to make sure everything was ready to go before launch. The product is top-notch and I feel confident will be a great benefit to our campus community."

- Greg Meyer, Moravian University
